- gifts may only be accepted when appropriate to the business relationship and authorisation has been obtained from the board - cash or equivalent is not acceptable
- no employee will make offers of, or receive, bribes or other improper payments.

REPORTING

Any circumstance, which an employee believes, in good faith, to be a breach of a law or this Code, is to be brought to the attention of the employee's supervisor or to a more senior executive, who is in turn responsible for contacting senior management or the Company Secretary. For guidance, any person reporting such breaches will be protected from retribution.

If reporting to a supervisor does not result in satisfactory action, or is not considered likely to result in satisfactory action, any employee may report suspected breaches to the Managing Director, Chairman of the Board or Chairman of a Board Committee.

PERIODIC REPORTING

The Managing Director is responsible for periodic reports to the Board on the operation and effectiveness of this Code.
